

OLIVER SAMUELS returns to the Virgin Islands with his hilarious new comedy “Sheep in Wolf’s Clothing.”

Reichhold Center for the Arts will present “Sheep in Wolf’s Clothing” on St. Croix, Friday, July 10, 8 p.m. at Island Center. The play will premiere on St. Thomas at Reichhold Center on Saturday, July 11 and Sunday, July 12 at 8 p.m.

Get ready for a full evening of laughs with Oliver as Amos Brown, a successful building contractor whose household is turned upside down when his wife decides to take in a foster child. The Browns become foster parents to an ex-gangster and reform school dropout. The combination of a new foster child, coupled with an unwelcomed house guest, and the Brown’s daughter Pat, sends sparks flying throughout the household. The play features actors from previous Oliver plays, including Glen “Titus” Campbell, Courtney Wilson, Chris Hutchinson, and Camille Davis.
